Brief Summary

Miss Tiffany Leavitt is known in the travel industry as a “sharp woman”. She dresses to a “T” – “Always sharp”. She turns heads when she walks down the street. She is a no-nonsense woman. When she was just a child, she dreamed of flying the skies aboard those big airplanes. As soon as she reached adulthood, she did just that. Where ever she found a contract as a flight attendant or as a guide in the most remote places in the world, she was the first to apply. She learned to fight. She learned to save her pennies. In short, Miss Tiffany had a goal. In the end every one of her efforts paid off. She now owns a successful travel agency in one of the busiest malls in New Orleans.
