

Inspector Adrian Mysteries – Book 3

A Twin Problem

Details on Setting and Locations

A Twin Problem's story is set on the Isle of Jersey. Detective Inspector David Adrian has been recently transferred to the Gorey Constabulary. He lives at the White House Inn, where many of the residents are retirees or artists selling their crafts on the island. One night, Inspector Adrian meets Connie Randal, a famous author. She tells him about her parents' murders (or suicide pact) that occurred on the island below the Castle of Orgueil. The inspector does not like "cold cases" but he finds Connie too attractive to refuse to take another look at the reports and old files.

The Isle of Jersey is known to many British citizens for being a small piece of paradise when it comes to comfortable (and quite expensive) retirement venue. The summer hours are long and uneventful until murder grips the little community surrounding the Castle of Orgueil. A couple has died fifteen years ago at the base of the castle's cliffs, leaving a young girl of fifteen short of answers. It's about time someone elucidates that mystery.

List of Prominent Locations in the Story:

Gorey Community on the Isle of Jersey, beach.

Orgueil Castle cliffs plunging down to the sea.

The White House Inn, a private hotel where Inspector Adrian lives and Connie Randal is staying.
