Loves cooking.

How others view the character

Often mistaken for a mentally challenged person, because of his wandering gaze. Otherwise, he’s liked and even admired for his perspicacity.

Brief Summary

Detective Inspector David Adrian is a young man with ambition, although you would not know it by looking at him. He’s a non-assuming fellow. He dresses conservatively and does not much care to make an impression on anyone. He is fairly handsome and even attractive to the ladies. Inspector Adrian has recently been transferred to the Gorey Constabulary on the Isle of Jersey to enhance its image and reputation among the rich & famous who live and have retired to the island in recent years. Solving this “cold case” will tax David Adrian’s grey cells with some mental gymnastics.

Brief Summary

Sylvia Hunter has her own ideas about running an investigation. She grew up on the Isle of Jersey and she knows the inhabitants are “a different breed”. They’re not your regular English or French people. Sylvia would love to marry someday and have kids, but right now she is trying to save money to move to a tropical island to open her own private detective agency. She loves working with Inspector David Adrian. He’s exactly what a detective should be in her limited experience. He is dedicated and although at times a little crazy, she has nothing but admiration for the man.
